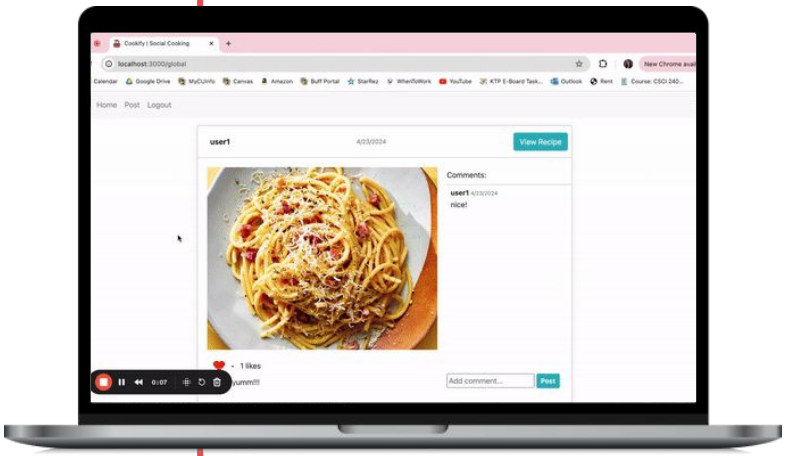
cookify

Ryan Greer, Lili Hailemariam, Vladimir Hristovski, Alex Reid, Hannah Yoon

014-07



cookify

- A social network for cooking
- All-in-one cooking app
- Provides cooks with a platform

target users

Culinary Influencers

- Looking to share recipes
- Want a platform

Foodies

- Want to find new recipes
- Want to follow their favorite creators

main features

sns functions

- Basic social network site functionality
- Provides familiary to the user

recipe view

- Each post is attached to a recipe
- Users can view recipes within the app repost

- Users can post their own version of recipes
- This provides potential ‘virality’ to recipe creators

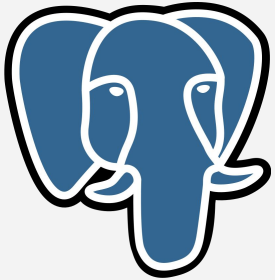
tools used

Github
VCS Repo

5/5

Projects
Project Tracking

4/5

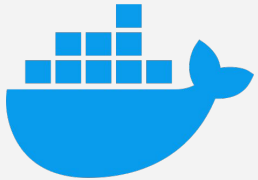


PostgreSQL
Database

4/5

VS Code
IDE

5/5



Docker
Containerization

4/5

tools used

Azure
Deployment

5/5

NodeJS
Application Server

5/5

HTML + Bootstrap
UI

4/5

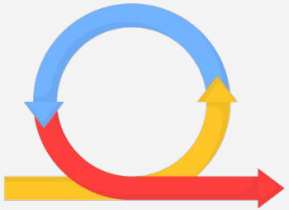
Handlebars
UI - Templating

3/5

Chai HTTP
Unit Testing

4/5

development methodologies



Agile

Project management

4/5

Kanban Boards

Progress tracking

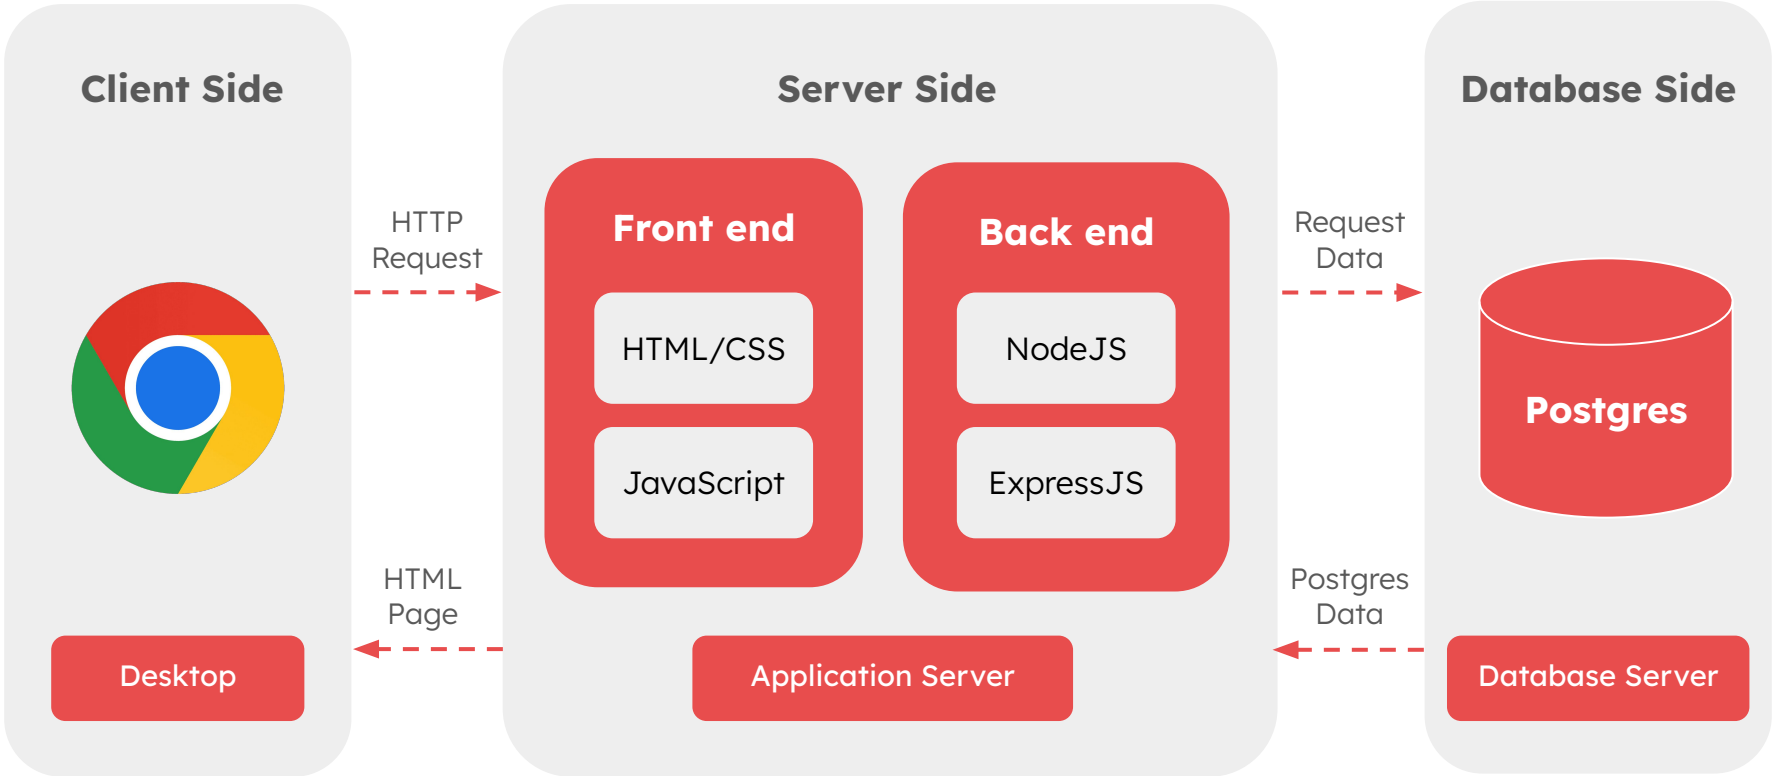
4/5

Pair Programming

Development Strategy

5/5

architecture diagram



challenges faced

navigating schedules

- Schedules conflicted
- Relied on async communication

merge conflicts

- Dependent features
- So, we assigned tasks that were independent

code debugging

- Features required complex SQL queries
- Relied on TAs, OH, etc.

future scope

1. Feed algorithm
2. Image upload instead of URL
3. Profile picture for users
4. Recipe collections
5. Personalized recommendations demo!

cookify

Ryan Greer, Lili Hailemariam, Vladimir Hristovski, Alex Reid, Hannah Yoon

014-07